

Steve Moore

Vice President

Finance, Banking, Insurance and Technology

---

- More than a decade with NEXT LEVEL Partners®, LLC; the past 4-years as VP; the prior 8-years as an Executive Level Practitioner with hands on experience in managing change, improving processes, and driving root cause solutions. Deep experience working with C-Suite leaders in a team environment to transform companies and cultures.
  - 3-years with Danaher Corporation as an Executive in a high-performance / high-expectation Lean environment managing Operations, Customer Interface Groups, and New Product Introductions (mfg. start-up through shipment).
  - 2 years with GE Capital as an Executive in Six Sigma Management & Marketing.
  - 18 years of progressively responsible Executive assignments with Coca-Cola in Sales, Marketing, Operations, and Finance.
  - Six Sigma Black Belt (DMAIC)
  - Lean Sensei: “transactional-process” industries
  - Engagement Results:
    - Streamlined processes in the Insurance industry to include Actuarial, Risk Avoidance, Property & Casualty Finance, Membership Analysis, Business Operations, Billing, Health Care realignment.
    - Successfully lead process change on a global level with a major technology sector company with over $60 Billion in revenue
    - Successfully implemented Lean in hospital systems and private practices (some owned by those hospital systems, some owned by health care companies, some independent)
    - Successfully managed Lean transformation programs in Banking market segments including banks from $800 million to $22 Billion in Assets under management.
    - Successfully implemented Lean transformation programs in Finance market segments including brokerage firms, commercial lending, and leasing operations.
  - BSBA from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro
  - MBA from High Point University.
-